Forest Service NatureWatch Program

Nationwide

With hundreds of online sites to help you find the best way to engage with the natural world, NatureWatch is here to give you the experience of a lifetime!

Check out the latest news in nature watching opportunities, watch videos both above and below water, get apps to help you identify and report your observations of leaves, birds, and wildlife; and download resources for classrooms to take science learning to the next level.

NatureWatch connects you to signature programs of the U.S. Forest Service and partners, such as distance learning adventures like the award-winning FSNatureLIVE series, science for students publications like Natural Inquirer, native plants and pollinators through Celebrating Wildflowers, where to go experience nature locally through Discover the Forest, and wildlife watching sites online.

For More Information: Visit the NatureWatch website to find places to see wildlife, report observations, and get more engaged in conserving nature!
